LOUISVILLE, KY.,
TUESDAY MORNING, JAN. 22, 1891.

THE DISAPPEARANCE—The telegraphic dispatches of Sunday night and last evening are of great interest. Mr. Mason introduced into the Senate a resolution to suspend certain Federal laws, in order to avert a collision in the seceding States. A vote upon the adoption of Mr. Crittenden's amendments cannot long be postponed, and in case of their rejection, the Committee of Thirteen propose a national convention to secure a peaceful separation and equitable division of the public domain and property. Col. Hayne, the South Carolina Commissioner, by advice had resorted to consult with Gen. Pickens prior to making further demands upon the President. The Alabama delegation has withdrawn from Congress. The secession of Georgia is the cause of considerable rejoicing in Louisiana. The Senators from Alabama, Mississippi and Georgia yesterday retired from Congress. The Kansas bill passed the Senate. At Memphis a heavy battery has been erected.

REVENUE—Melbourne, the principal of a gang of horse thieves roaming from Montgomery county through the mountains on to the Ohio river, was last week arrested in Rowan county.

DR. FOSTER, the Newport (Ky.) postmaster, who offered the insult to the American flag at Newport a few days ago, after having had four distinct trials by jury, was fined $20 for trespass on Saturday. He took an appeal.

AT ABOUT SIX O'CLOCK on Saturday evening, an affray occurred at the Hay House, in Shelbyville, Ind., between two men named Cashman and Benson, in which the former was stabbed three times in the breast.

WE TAKE PLEASURE in acknowledging the compliment of an honorary membership of the Gymnastic Association, tendered us by the Directory.

IT IS STATED that the free negro porters, barbers, &c., on the Cincinnati and Louisville mailroads have been notified not to visit Louisville any more.

THE LOUISVILLE and Portland Railway Company have put several new coaches on the road, and run more expeditiously than ever before.

THE RECEIPTS of the Portland and New Albany Ferry Company since the late trouble began have greatly decreased, and the boats have been running at an actual expense of from $100 to $150 per week.

THE STEAMER MAGNET brought up yesterday from Baton Rouge fifty-seven soldiers, under Major Hastings, who were recently ejected from the Arsenal at that point by the Louisiana troops. They went to Newport on the steamer Telegraph.

OFFICER LEE, of Louisville, recently found Oliver Jacobs, a runaway negro, at Memphis, and returned him to this city. He ran away from F. S. Thompson in 1860.

TWO DAYS of sunshine have been blessed with, and hope for more similar favors, for we have had rain more than two-thirds of the time for over six weeks.

THE HOUSEHOLD JOURNAL, published by A. Haskell, New York city, is a capital and cheap magazine. The January number has reached us.

THE OFFICE of Dr. Barton, a Vincennes dentist, was entered on Wednesday evening last and gold foil to the value of $180 stolen.

JOHN B. GOUGH, the great temperance orator, is in Cincinnati. We hope he will improve the whiskey there.

MUSICAL—By call of the Mayor, the General Council were brought together last night. The special object of the call was to consider certain amendments to the charter for school purposes. There were two reports submitted, upon which much discussion ensued. Finding no definite action could be taken to night, a resolution, raising a committee of three from the Board of Common Council, and two from the Board of Aldermen, to confer with Board of Trustees and report to extra session of the General Council, to be called by the Mayor, was adopted.

IMMEDIATELY after this, Councilman Sawyer introduced the following preamble and resolution:

WHEREAS, Joseph Croxon, Representative of the First District in our State Legislature, by voting adversely to holding the national convention over the State Capitol, giving strong and improper impression of the people of Louisville,

Resolved, That we greatly deplore the said vote of Croxon, and pronounce it in direct opposition of the wishes and sentiments of the citizens of Louisville.

After much discussion the yeas and nays were taken as follows: Yeas—Campbell, Prentiss, Smyer, Armstrong, Walker, Anderson, Pomeroy, Ronald, and Moore. Nays—Barbee, Welman, Pyles, and Hemming.

After this a resolution authorizing the Mayor to purchase and hold a national flag upon the court-house was unanimously adopted.

ATTENDED MURDER—In the City Court yesterday morning, the persons who were apprehended for slaying Dennis Whalen on Friday evening last, were examined and two were held for trial.

Col. Collins was discharged, however, but last evening proceeded to the house of Whalen, at the corner of Tenth and Jefferson streets, and attempted violent entrance, with some dangerous arms, no doubt. He climbed upon a low shelf to a pistol secured him off, and late last night the officers were looking for him.

IN ADDITION to that great sale which takes place this morning at L. Kahn & Co's, at 10 o'clock, there will be sold a retail stock of clothing, ladies' shoes, hats, Congress gaiters, a large inventory of bleached table cloth, notions, prints, muslins, etc.

A call is solicited and satisfaction guaranteed, as every article offered must be sold by order of the assignee, regardless of prices. The well-known auctioneer, Mr. Grauman, will surely do his duty to his friends and customers. For particulars see advertisement.

LEGISLATION MEETING—There will be a meeting of the citizens of the First and Second Wards on Wednesday evening at Secretary's Exchange, in order to give expression to the feeling of the ward and stripe over the Capitol, at Frankfort. That the majority of its constituents is well known. Let every Union man be there.

CHANGE OF FIRM—By an advertisement in this paper, it will be seen that the firm of S. Cassedy & Son, has been changed to the style of S. Cassedy & Son. This old established country store is so well and favorably known throughout the country that commendation is quite superfluous.

FOR LOW PRICES and fine pictures the whole combined North-east or best or excel Elrod. Look for No. 409, Main street, Fourth street.

THE LOUISVILLE GYMNASIUM ASSOCIATION. It is often alleged, and with truth, that physical education is neglected in America, and we heartily second any effort that has for its object the physical culture of our people. The gymnasium is an institution in Europe while here an occasional one is heard of. But the young men of Louisville long since saw the advantages of manly vigor and muscular development, and the consequence was that there has grown up one of the best gymnasiums in the country, numbering 125 members, and including several excellent gymnasts. The regulations governing the association are excellent, and the benefit of the gymnasium is seen in many a strongly-knit frame that without such exercise as the gymnasium affords would be a weakly specimen of humanity. The association during its three years existence has prospered, and now possesses all the requisite appointments, and a long lease of the premises at the corner of Center street and Broadway. A young man in the community could be really benefited and improved by being a member of an association composed solely of gentlemen.

Saturday evening the Gymnasium was the scene of a delightful affair. Mr. J. C. Van Pelt, an active member, who has contributed largely to the success of the institution, was surprised by Mr. W. V. B. Till addressing him as follows:

MR. VAN PELT—Sir: On last Monday night, after the adjournment of our regular session, a cheerful and successful social gathering of your friends, concerning the very prosperous condition of this institution. Unnumbered praises were heaped upon those gentlemen whose names and actions have been connected with the giant-like strides of progress that have followed every exertion of this Association. Yourself, Mr. Van Pelt, you have been most successful in your efforts of admiration and gratitude. Your indomitable energy, your self-sacrificing interest, and unbounded generosity which you have shown in the management of this Gymnasium, have elicited time and again that tribute which a grateful heart ever extends to its friend and benefactor. I have said friend and benefactor, and were I consistent with this occasion I might go to you, beyond the shadow of a doubt, that such you have always been, and such you still remain in the estimation of every gymnast present.

It was suggested on Monday night by our newly elected treasurer, Mr. Fielding, that perhaps if the attempt were made, a suitable testimonial might be obtained that would speak to you in terms more glowing than any yet uttered. Consequently the members of this Association, who are so numerous, and the result of the undertaking you have here before you. Permit me, then, my friend, in behalf of the members of the Louisville Gymnasium, to tender you this testimonial of their profound esteem and admiration for you as a gentleman, and as a friend and benefactor of our people.

And emuleur of that noble science which calls us together here night after night, and though the gift itself is poor and trivial in comparison with the generous impulses that prompted the presentation, still the large assembly of members ready and eager to prove their appreciation of my humble efforts in behalf of this institution, gentlemen, that you place too high an estimate upon your services. I have rendered, and I am sure you will be proud to accept of it, and I am sure you will be proud to accept of it, and I am sure you will be proud to accept of it.

To which Mr. Van Pelt thus replied: It is scarcely necessary for me to say that I am wholly unprepared for this manifestation of your friendship—this munificent token of your esteem. Little did I dream on my way here to-night that I should meet this large assembly of members ready and eager to prove their appreciation of my humble efforts in behalf of this institution, gentlemen, that you place too high an estimate upon your services. I have rendered, and I am sure you will be proud to accept of it, and I am sure you will be proud to accept of it.

MR. TILL and Members of the Gymnastic Association: It is scarcely necessary for me to say that I am wholly unprepared for this manifestation of your friendship—this munificent token of your esteem. Little did I dream on my way here to-night that I should meet this large assembly of members ready and eager to prove their appreciation of my humble efforts in behalf of this institution, gentlemen, that you place too high an estimate upon your services. ## BUSINESS AFFAIRS.

The Daily Democrat to the Country.
Now that Congress is in session and every one within the facilities of a daily mail should take a daily paper, we have to remind our readers and the public generally that the Daily Democrat, for the country, is supplied at five dollars per year or fifty cents per month, payable always in advance.

Let those who would keep themselves posted on the current events of the times send their subscriptions at once.

New Goods.—Guthrie & Bros. are receiving their second importation of dry goods, bought since the decline, which enables them to sell at prices much below usual rates. Rept velours, in all colors; French and Irish poplins, all grades; new prints, merinos, black poplins and mourning goods, evening silk, hosiery, etc. This is a rare chance for choice goods, at very low prices.

Union! Union!—The Hon. J. F. Bell expressed himself so strongly in favor of the perpetuity of our glorious Union, that he believed there was no earthly contingency within the reach of human calculation which could justify a disruption of this glorious government. Language equally as strong might be used in favor of the great clothing establishment of J. M. Armstrong, on Main street, opposite the National Hotel. To sustain those two institutions—the Union of the States and Armstrong's Clothing House—are the great questions now before the American people. "They must and shall be sustained!"

HOME TESTIMONY.

Dr. C. W. BAKER, M. D., Age 30, 19.
Dear Sir: For the past several months I have been laboring under great weakness and general debility, much of the time confined to my bed, from which I received no benefit from my physician. After using some of your blood pills and a purifier, purchased of your agent, Mr. W. H. H. Plummer, I feel as a new person, almost entirely free from disease, and would recommend your medicines to all who are in need of an invaluable remedy.

Yours truly, MARY W. HOFFMAN.

See advertisement in another column.

One of the proofs that Dr. Shallenberger's invaluable remedy for fever and ague is a discovery in medicine based upon a new and correct principle, may be found in the fact that cases of long standing, were cured with quinine, or all other remedies—cases which fail to be improved in the usual manner, are (if not complicated with other serious maladies) as speedily and effectively reached as those which have never received any kind of treatment. For further proofs get a pamphlet of the agent.

The old Irish poet said that woman "was the sweetest possession" for the care of man; but in this day we have an all-powerful talisman for the arrangement of care, broken spirits, prostrated energies, and debilitating influences of both sexes. This article is Wright's Rejuvenating Elixir. Marvel not when we tell you that it is no vain word we utter; this Elixir will revitalize the disorganized functions and prostrated energies of the human body; it will drive despair and despondency to the winds; it will dispel the irritable disposition; it will effectually remove dyspepsia, gloominess, and mental hallucinations; it is simple and effective in its operation; it brings deep sleep and rest to many a weary soul. Sold by all respectable druggists throughout the United States and Canada. J. WRIGHT & CO., sole proprietors, New Orleans, La. See advertisement. jals d&w

McLean's Strengthening Cordial.—This invaluable compound, we are glad to know, has become the most popular remedy in the United States. Nearly every family keeps it on hand. They find it saves physicians' bills. A small quantity given in season will ward off fever, or any prevalent disease. See the advertisement in another column. jals d&w

A time when there is great fear that the stock of dry lumber, shins, doors, blinds, etc., will fall, owing to the vast amount of improvements in Louisville, it will be interesting to the public to know that Alexander, Ellis & Co., have secured a large stock of dry lumber, shins, doors, blinds, etc., at their factory on Fulton, above Preston street.
